Welcome to Foursquare's Church Planter's Assessment Training!

The formation of this tool has been guided by a simple purpose: To assemble a comprehensive Church Planter's Assessment Tool to be used by all districts in Foursquare. We expect this to facilitate District Supervisors in making informed decisions regarding prospective church planters, assist leaders in focusing their preparation of potential planters, offer confirmation, affirmation or redirection for those prospects and encourage fruitful partnerships in planting across district lines.

Good assessments must begin with a desire on our parts to collect information that will confirm Character, Call, Competency and Context. We will do this by recognizing that many valuable resources can help a Supervisor in arriving at well-reasoned decisions. Our process works as follows:

References dealing with Character
Discernment dealing with Call
Assessment dealing with Competency
Sensitivity dealing with Context

We want to put the right people in the right places with sensitivity for any cultural and ethnic distinctive they may face. Healthy leaders planting churches out of their God-given gifts offer the greatest opportunity for healthy reproducing churches that reach the Harvest.

Objectives:

1. Embrace the importance of good selection.
2. Understand the assessment process and how to implement it.
3. Learn and/or sharpen your skills in behavioral interviewing.
4. Learn how to generate a report that shares the information gathered in the assessment for the purpose of directing the prospective planters next steps.
5. Understand how to do a debrief interview and its importance for the planter.

What Is Assessment?

Definition: Assessment is a multi- phased information gathering process that provides an appraisal of the competencies of a prospective church planter in 13 areas of behavior that are important to planting a new church. The assessment process also provides additional confirmation of a prospective planter's Call and Character.

Johari's Window

When a prospect has a particular Context selected for planting, the assessment can also provide information about how equipped the planter is for that community of people.

- The thirteen quality characteristics: See the Handout in the front pocket of your notebook or turn to the How do you do an assessment tab, phase 2 for a second copy.

ASSESSOR'S ROLE

Assessor's Role: The role of an assessment team is not to select a church planter but rather to provide the District Supervisor with a comprehensive report about the planting couple or individual so that an informed decision can be made about the next best steps for the prospective planter.

B. The Purpose of Assessment is Two-Fold:

1. Church planters' assessments give District Supervisors and Parent Church Pastors an objective, comprehensive report that brings clarity relating to the prospective planters':
  - Character- Information gathered during the behavioral interview and must be augmented by the testimony of references affirm solid character. All references should be followed up with at least a phone conversation.
  - Call - In addition to the Statement of Calling, we will seek to discover ways that leaders who have worked with the candidate in either a ministry or secular work context can confirm a genuine calling.
  - Context - Is the couple or individual a good fit for the community they wish to plant in? Do they have the appropriate gifts to address the obstacles in that context?
  - Competency - How equipped is this couple or individual in each of the "13 Competencies of an Effective Church Planter" as discovered through the behavioral interview process and the pre-assessment information gathering.

This information will help them resource and deploy church planters who will successfully plant healthy reproducing churches that reach thousands of people for Jesus Christ.

2. Church planters' assessments will affirm, confirm or redirect a prospective planter in what they think God has called them to do. Through the debrief interview, the candidate can receive valuable insight into the next "best steps" for their leadership development and/or deployment as a planter.

C. Biblical Foundations:

Is Assessment Biblical?

As a table group, compile a list of scriptures that address the concept of appraising a person's character and skills prior to deployment OR are examples of that being practiced. Record your observations that accompany each of the scriptures and be prepared to share them with the larger group:

13 QUALITY CHARACTERISTICS

1. Visionizing Capacity

Characteristics:

What examples of exercising faith in your personal life could you share with others who struggle with faith issues?

Tell me about a situation that required a solution but in which you felt powerless. How was your faith evidenced in this situation?

When Do You Do An Assessment?

- Where does the assessment process begin in the Church Planter's preparation timeline?

Maximum benefit for the prospective planter will occur when the process is begun at the earliest point of identification of his or her interest in planting a church. Please see the timeline on the next page for a comprehensive view.

- What is the sequence for the various parts of the assessment process, particularly the behavioral interview?

The entire assessment process may be as long as three months or as brief as a conversation with a prospective planter, depending on the discoveries made in each phase of the process. Please see the timeline for the entire assessment process on the last page in this section.

ASSESSMENT PROCESS TIMELINE

CHURCH PLANTING
TIMELINE

Who Should Be An Assessor?

A. Assessor Selection:

District leaders should recruit recognized Foursquare leaders in local churches, both men and women, who exhibit the following qualities in their behavior:

Personally Secure

Secure individuals can focus on the prospective church planter and their life and avoid engaging them in their own story or viewpoint.

Objectivity

Objective interviewers aren't influenced by personal biases in determining the validity of the information shared by the candidate or making judgments on the information gathered.

Empathy

Empathic interviewers are sensitive to the anxiety experienced by the candidate. They communicate their understanding and attempt to minimize the anxiety of the situation.

Clear Communicator

Clear communicators encourage a two-way exchange of information that is concise, descriptive and interesting. They are able to modulate their tempo.

Attentive Listening

Attentive listeners have the ability to concentrate and perceive sensitively while assimilating and analyzing information.

Patience

Patient interviewers aren't easily frustrated by either the variety of personalities of interviewees or the length of time needed to do effective interviewing.

Team Player

Interviewers who excel are those who commit to personal development and growth and are able to work well with others.

Relational

The capacity to be relational while maintaining a disciplined process is an important trait. The ability to keep an assessment on track and on schedule using good relational skills is a blessing.

Basic Writing Skills:

Able to put what they have heard in clear written form.

Not Everyone Makes a Good Interviewer

It is important to realize that not all individuals are intended to be selection interviewers. While most people can benefit from the training, not all will become highly trained interviewers. The training process can be used as a way to screen and qualify selected individuals. Gift oriented ministry should be employed in the selection of assessors. Some traits that should serve as warning signs that direct you away from a particular individual are:

- People with mercy as a primary gift.
- People who like to “fix” situations. Assessment is not a counseling session.
- People who struggle with or dislike interpersonal communication (one on one conversation).
- People who need to be the expert. They may be experts but it is imperative that they don’t need to prove it!

B. How many assessors does it take to do an assessment?

We recommend a team of 3 – 4 assessors to collect the most thorough information possible. The interview process should never be done alone. Objectivity is easily compromised with only a single interviewer. In addition, a team can increase the scope of good questions and the information collected.

C. How many assessment teams do you need in a District?

We recommend that you build teams of assessors in strategic geographic regions to reduce travel and offer a timely process for your prospective planters.. In metro areas you may need multiple teams in close proximity to serve the number of candidates you have and the various language groups.

D. Structure of an Assessment Team:

Each team should have one person appointed to lead the team. This person will be the lead assessor. The lead assessor’s responsibilities are as follows:

1. Provide assessment team member/s with an assessment questionnaire master.
2. Make sure each team member has a copy of the Pre-Assessment profile at least one week prior to the assessment.
3. Meet one hour before the assessment to pray and go over last minute details.
4. Open with introductions and create a relaxing environment for everyone.
5. Explain what the next few hours will look like. Verify bathroom facilities and food and beverages that will be available. Give directions!
6. Explain his/her role in keeping the interview process moving. If someone gets away from the question asked, he or she will be nudged back on track.
7. Begin the interview by giving the potential planter(s) 3 minutes to share what God has put on their heart about the church plant.
8. Consult with team members during breaks to discuss the direction of the interview up to that point and make appropriate adjustments.
9. Thank the prospective planters for their involvement at the close of the interview and answer any lingering questions they may have.
10. Review any necessary information with team members and give dates for when their reporting is due. Two weeks is recommended.
11. Follow up until all reports are assembled and the report is completed and turned in to the District Supervisor or other personnel designated by him/her.
12. Insure that the prospective planting couple or individual receives a copy of the assessment and has a debrief interview/conversation.
13. Important Note: The lead assessor will also be asking questions in areas that he or she feels need more clarity.

How Do You Do An Assessment?

Assessment is a multi-dimensional process, involving four (4) major phases:

Phase 1:

Pre-assessment Information Gathering and Information Release Form

Phase 2:

Assessment Information Gathering—The Behavioral Interview

Phase 3:

Evaluating the Information and Report Generation

Phase 4:

Debrief Interview with the Potential Planter/s

Good Church Planter Assessments help give Supervisors clarity relating to...

Character

Information gleaned during the behavioral interview must be augmented by the testimony of references who can affirm solid character

Call

In addition to the Statement of Calling, we will seek to discover ways that leaders who have worked with the candidate in either a ministry or secular work context can confirm a genuine calling.

Context

Are the couple or individual a good fit for the community they wish to reach? Do they have appropriate gifts to overcome the obstacles?

Competency

This is the nuts and bolts of the Ridley Behavioral Interview: “13 Competencies of an Effective Church Planter”.

Ninety percent of what assessors are directly involved with is the 13 competencies. The remaining ten percent of their involvement is integrating what the prospective planter and other leaders in his/her life have related about the Character, Call and Context issues for this prospective planter.

PHASE 1

PRE-ASSESSMENT

INFORMATION GATHERING AND INFORMATION RELEASE FORM

Phase One: Pre-Assessment Information Gathering and Information Release Form

Step 1: Conversation with a prospective planter

- A simple conversation with a prospective planter can inform the appropriate next step for them.
- A self assessment tool can be given to the potential planter to consider their past behavior and how it has demonstrated their ability to engage in planting a new church rather than “building on another man’s foundation” in an existing church.
  - *See a sample of a self-assessment tool under the appropriate tab in this toolkit.
- A follow-up conversation to discuss the prospective planter’s self discoveries from the self-assessment can determine whether the assessment process should precede any further.

Step 2: Pre-Assessment packet is given to the candidate

- This packet includes the materials listed below and provided for your information on the following pages:
  - a. Boiler Plate Letter from District Supervisor or designated leader
  - b. Church Planter Consideration Application
  - c. Church Planter References
  - d. Parent Church Pastor or Sponsoring Pastor’s Recommendation with a boiler plate letter
  - e. Information Release form
- Please Note: This packet should be given to the planter at least one month prior to the interview process so that everyone involved can complete his or her work.
- District personnel are responsible for giving the parent church pastor/sponsoring pastor recommendation and the reference forms to the appropriate leaders. All references should be followed up with at least a phone conversation.
- When all the forms and recommendations are turned in, copies of the prospect’s application and personal profile should be made for each assessor on the team and given to them at least 24 hours prior to the interview process. (See page 57, yellow tab 3)

INTERNATIONAL CHURCH Of The FOURSQUARE GOSPEL

 Pre-Assessment Profile

Dear Pastors/Church Planters,

Greetings to you! We want you to know how excited we are that progress is being made toward the fulfillment of the ministry to which you've been called.

You should view your upcoming Church Planter/Pastoral Assessment as an opportunity to paint a picture that will assist both you and Foursquare in considering your future ministry. We will be asking many questions, covering considerable territory. We ask that you be descriptive on one hand, but succinct and to the point on the other. See if you can balance that act!

We expect the interview to last 4 hours with a lunch break. We will take other breaks to stay refreshed. During the interview, our Assessment Team will be taking notes. Don't be concerned, as it allows us to draw upon our notes in finishing the assessment.

We are sending this document to you prior to the assessment to help you to be prepared. You will find a list of 13 topics covering the areas we will focus on. We are also including a short description of what we are looking to discover about your ministry history in each area. We trust this will help in your preparation.

Please know that our conversation is confidential, therefore we hope you will be free to respond openly.

Blessings in Christ,

(District Multiplication Leader's Name Here)
Church Multiplication Coordinator

God is doing a mighty work here in the (District Name Here). There has been tremendous interest from all around the country to be involved in what God is doing. I received your contact with our Office as being from the Lord, and am privileged to partner with you in discovering if His will for your life includes planting a vital, healthy reproducing church in our District.

Your interest was directed to me, because I oversee Foursquare's church planting efforts in the (District Name Here). In order for us to complete our initial evaluation, please complete and return the following:

- Application for Church Planting Consideration. Please complete the enclosed application.
- Resume. Please forward a current resume.
- References. Please forward names, phone numbers and addresses of three leaders who know you well, and with whom we can speak to discuss your qualifications.
- Information Release Form - Please be sure to read this form carefully and sign this document prior to returning it to the District Office.
- Statement of Calling. Briefly describe the direction you feel God is leading you. Be as specific as possible as to location, type of ministry, etc. Share the vision God has spoken to your heart.
- Personal Profile. Please complete the enclosed questionnaire, per instructions.
- Photograph. Please attach a recent formal photograph of you and your spouse (approx. 2" X 3").
- Sermon Tape- If one is available, please send an audio copy of your best sermon! We will return it upon request.

Enclosed, you will find some additional information regarding the (District Name Here), as well as a description of the process you can expect as we move along this road together. I will be in contact with you once the requested items are received. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me directly.

May the Lord continue to bless you and lead you into His will.

Serving Him with You,

(District Multiplication Leader's Name Here)

Church Planting Coordinator

Dear Sponsoring Pastor,

Thank you for your commitment to church multiplication. Church planting has a greater impact in winning souls for Christ than any other means of evangelism. We are excited to partner with you in seeing many people come to know Jesus and make Him Lord of their lives.

We have received an inquiry from (Church Planter's Name) about the possibility of becoming a part of our church multiplication efforts here in the (District Name). We have sent an Application Packet to them and will be assembling that shortly. It is our practice to initiate dialog with a potential church planter's Parent Pastor, Parent Church Network or Divisional Supt. as they perhaps better than anyone else can speak to the readiness issues we face in considering this person for future ministry.

Enclosed, you will find a packet of materials that will need to be completed in helping us to process the church-planting candidate. Below is a list of those items, including brief instructions as to what is needed. Please return everything to the (District Name) district office as soon as possible.

1. Recommendation of the Parenting Pastor: To be completed by yourself.
2. Personal Evaluation Worksheet- To be completed by a leader who has worked closely with (Church Planter's Name) and can speak to their character, gifting and fruitfulness.
3. Commitment and Statement of Impact- To be completed by yourself.

Finally, we want to express our gratitude for your vision and investment in (Planter's Name). We have come to understand that the furtherance of the Kingdom is dependent upon God sending laborers into the harvest field. But this simply cannot happen if leaders don't invest themselves into, emerging leaders who will take the baton we pass them and run with character, skill and determination.

Your input is invaluable as we move through the process of discovering this candidate's qualifications and readiness to plant a new Foursquare church. Again, thanks!

For the Harvest,

(Church Multiplication Leader)

(District Office Name) of Foursquare Churches

Phase 2

Assessment Information Gathering - The Behavioral Interview

Phase Two: Assessment Information Gathering The Behavioral Interview

Step One: Preparing for the Behavioral Interview:

A site for the assessment should be selected that includes the following:

- A warm, clean environment with comfortable seating arranged for conversation not interrogation.
- Bathroom facilities with convenient access.
- Food and beverages provided in appropriate quantity.
- Privacy and freedom from distractions or interruptions by people not directly involved in the interview. Children should be cared for by other caregivers and not be present at the interview itself.

The District Supervisor or District assessment leader will schedule a five (5) hour block of time for an interview with the prospective planter and an assessment team.

Time blocking for the interview may go as follows:

- |   |    |  |
|---|----|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Round One 60 minutes</li> <li>Break- 10 minutes</li> <li>• Round Two 60 minutes</li> <li>Break- 20 minutes</li> <li>• Round Three 45 minutes</li> <li>• Wrap-Up</li> </ul> | OR | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Round One 1 hr. 40 min.</li> <li>Break- 20 min.</li> <li>Round Two 1 hr. 40 min.</li> </ul> |
|---|----|--|

It is important to set the times prior to the onset of the interview

The assessment team meets at least one hour prior to the assessment to complete preparations for the interview. These include:

- Familiarize yourself with the candidate before the interview.
  - Review the application form and references for the potential planter.
  - Use the background information as stimulus material for inquiry into various performance areas.
- Eliminate the possibility of interruptions or distractions. We want to demonstrate respect for our prospective planters and be efficient in our use of everyone's time.
- Create a comfortable environment.
  - Remove physical or psychological barriers.
  - Check to insure the interview setting is open and inviting.
  - Have refreshments available.
- Have a box of Kleenex available.
- It can be helpful to have a clock visible to the team but not in the planter's direct line of vision
- Be on time for the interview. This shows respect for the candidate and recognizes that their time is just as valuable as yours.

Training Exercise

Put yourself in the planters' shoes...
How do you think they feel coming into this interview?

Brainstorm at your table what you can do to set the planting couple or individual at ease? Record your ideas.

Step Two: The Interview Process

Guidelines and Overview of the Interview Process

- ⇒ Offer an opening statement. The lead assessor will do this. Following are some sample statements: The opening statement should always include these elements:
  - ⇒ 1. Information regarding restrooms and refreshments
  - ⇒ 2. Explanation for planter of how the interview will proceed and the notes that will be taken.
  - ⇒ 3. Permission to nudge the interview along as necessary.
  - ⇒ 4. Permission to help ask a question or clarify
  - ⇒ 5. Confirm confidentiality.
  - ⇒ 6. Planter opportunity to ask any questions they might have about the process.
 Following are some sample statements:

Sample Opening Statements

“This is an opportunity to paint a picture that should assist both you and Foursquare in considering your future ministry. Please don’t look upon this as a mysterious process, although we’ll ask a lot of interesting questions. We’re going to cover a lot of territory today. I’ll ask you to be descriptive on one hand, but succinct and to the point, on the other. See if you can try to balance that act. If we get bogged down, I’ll nudge us along. It is important that we cover all our bases.”

“Generally, I expect the interview to last 3 1/2 to 4 hours, give or take a little. If you feel the need at some point to refresh yourself, let us know, and we’ll take a short break. You already know where the rest rooms and beverages are located. You’ll notice that while we’re in conversation, our assessors will be taking notes. That’s because we want to be as accurate, complete and descriptive as possible. After the interview, we find it better to draw upon what we have written on paper than what’s in our heads.

Finally, you should know that our conversation is confidential. You, the District Supervisor and your parent church pastor (where applicable) are the only ones who have access to the results. Therefore, I hope you’ll feel free to respond openly.”

“Are there any questions that you might have? (Pause. Answer questions.) If you’re ready, let’s begin.”

- ⇒ Please help the planting couple feel at ease. God is in control. The assessment is not a do or die proposition. It is one step of many, and is intended to be a benefit to the planter. Please check to be sure the planter has signed the release form.
- ⇒ Look for a track record of behavior, not simply good intentions. The interview is based on the premise that past behavior is the best predictor of future ministry.
- ⇒ Suspend personal judgement.

- ⇒ Pace the interview to allow you to cover all thirteen qualities that have been identified as key behavioral categories in successful planters. Make opportunity for silence...potential planters need pauses to offer thoughtful responses.
- ⇒ Keep the planter focused on actual experiences, instead of dwelling on future plans. Vision casting is one of the attributes that is being evaluated, and is critical to the success of a church plant, but the assessment is not a forum for vision casting.
- ⇒ Ask open-ended questions instead of 'Yes/No' questions. If either person answers a question with a simple 'Yes' or 'No', then rephrase the question and try again.
- ⇒ Listen carefully, and help the planter stay on track in answering the questions that you have asked.
- ⇒ Ask follow-up questions, to get to a more in-depth understanding of the couple.
- ⇒ No recruiting during an assessment.
- ⇒ Enjoy yourselves! Keep in mind that this is to be a very relational approach.
- ⇒ Give feedback on the participation of the planter in the process, but avoid offering evaluation on the substance of the interview. Thank the planter for his/her time and effort. Note: This is very important! The assessment team must have the benefit of collaboration before feedback is offered.

Your goal is to produce a written report that describes the planting couple or individual's demonstration of the 13 attributes described later in this section. This report is a valuable tool in helping Supervisors make an informed decision on offering support to planters, particularly across Districts and where the prospective planter has recently come into our denomination. This report also gives the potential planter a snapshot that suggests his or her next steps.

Skill Training for the Interview Process

Three primary skills needed for the behavioral interview:

1. Asking good questions.
2. Listening attentively.
3. Recording what you hear with enough clarity and completeness to provide the lead assessor with the information needed to produce a complete report for the appropriate Supervisor and /or parent church pastor.

SKILL #1: Asking Good Questions

Characteristics of good questions:

- a. Seek past behavior.
- b. Require specific examples with names. Whenever “we” is used, ask for specific name/s.
- c. No leading questions.
- d. Avoid yes/no questions. (Key words that start yes/no questions) Yes/No questions often start with Can; Did; Do; Will; Is; Would; Could; Have. Open-ended questions begin with What; How; Tell; Describe; Identify; Elaborate; Give; Share
- e. You are seeking to discover at least 3 examples of each behavior category.

A. Open-ended inquiry:

Exercise: Select one quality characteristic and write two open-ended questions that require a prospective planting couple or individual to share how they have demonstrated that quality in their behavior. Pair up with someone at your table and try them out on them. Take notes on their responses for later use. Offer feedback to one another.

B. Follow-up Probing:

Exercise: Using the notes you gleaned from your “partner” in the previous exercise, craft at least two follow up questions to the first two you asked. Now pair up with the same person again and ask your follow up questions. Take notes on your “partner’s” responses. Offer each other feedback on the effectiveness of your questions.

C. Second and Third level questions:

Exercise: Using the notes you took from your follow up probing, craft some second and third level questions for your “partner”. Practice asking these questions of your partner and record pertinent notes.

SKILL #2: Listening Attentively

Exercise: Write a paragraph about the person you paired up with in the previous exercises regarding how the particular quality you were asking about has been demonstrated in his/her life. Read this back to them and have them offer feedback on how well you captured what they shared with you earlier.

Exercises: Your best listening practices: Compile a list of your table group’s best listening practices and be prepared to share that with the larger group.

SKILL #3: Recording the information you heard in a clear, accurate and complete manner.

This will be practiced later in the training.

Interview Training Exercise: The Mock Interview

All assessors being trained are placed in “assessment teams” at table for training purposes. Each of these teams will have the opportunity to conduct a one-hour mock assessment with a couple or individual already deployed as a planter. During this hour they will cover 4 quality characteristics with approximately 15 minutes to ask questions regarding each quality. Each team will have a trainer assigned to them who will guide them through the process and offer feedback as they practice in a “pretend” interview setting.

As Necessary Given Training Group:

Video or Trainer Demonstration of good questions with follow-up probing and second and third level questions: The trainers will model an interview around one quality characteristic followed by observations from the group OR a video of a live assessment will be shown followed by observations and questions from the group

Concluding the Interview:

1. The lead assessor is responsible to make sure they are satisfied that a full picture is being gathered about the planter(s). Better, more targeted questions are always the goal.
2. As the interview is coming to an end, ask the prospective planters if there is anything they would like to add to what they have already shared or if they have any questions for the team.
3. Once the assessment is finished, the lead assessor will thank the planter(s) and release them with information on when they can expect the assessment to be finished, and an understanding on how/when the assessment debrief will take place. Conclude the assessment with prayer for the couple or individual being assessed.
4. During the private post-assessment meeting, both assessors will offer observations from the interview with the planter(s). An overall evaluation of the interview process is also taken at this time. The lead assessor will emphasize the importance of complying with the report deadline.

***This will conclude the first day of training.

The Second day will begin with doing actual assessments in teams with a trainer present in each group. Following the assessments will be a debrief time for each assessment group and their trainer to evaluate their interview.

PHASE 3
EVALUATING THE INFORMATION AND REPORT GENERATION

PHASE 3: EVALUATING THE INFORMATION AND REPORT GENERATION

Once all essential information has been gathered using the recommended pre-assessment and assessment tools, the assembled information is evaluated and an assessment report is generated. This report forms the basis of a subsequent interview with the church planting couple where they are debriefed as to the outcome of the assessment and are instructed regarding the next steps.

Step 1: Evaluation of Information

Evaluate all information gathered from application, pre-assessment and assessment tools for the purpose of affirming the following areas:

Category A: Call:

Information Source

- Statement of Calling: Directions letter - Page 30
- Application For Church Planter Consideration Ministry # 1 - Page 31
- References for Church Planter Page 39 - 41
- Recommendation From Sponsoring Pastor - Question # 4, if Parent Church, PCN or Division is sponsoring- Page 44

Category B: Character:

Information Source

- References From “Application for Church Planting Consideration.” - Page 39 - 41
- Questions from Application for Church Planter Consideration - Page 31 - 38
- “Recommendation From Parenting Pastor“ - Page 44 - 48
- “Personal Evaluation Worksheet” (Parenting Pastor) - Page 45 - 46

Category C: Competency

Information Source:

- Behavioral Interview responses with rating norms. - Assessor’s notes
- Pre-assessment Profile (Grade using Rating Norms) - Page 35
- Recommendation from Parenting Pastor (Sponsoring Pastor’s Packet) - Page 44 - 48
- Personal Evaluation Worksheet (Sponsoring Pastor’s Packet) - Page 45 - 46

Category D: Context

The context of where one serves as a church planter, i.e., putting the right people in the right places is important and should be largely determined by one’s affinity with that particular ethnicity, culture, age group and previous experience and fruitfulness in a similar context. Please note: Cross-cultural gifts should be evident in a person with that context as a focus.

Information Source:

- Statement of Calling
- Application for Church Planter Consideration (Deals with language and ethnicity factors)
- Personal Profile Questions - Questions # 7 & 13
- Recommendation from Parenting Pastor - Perhaps parenting pastor could make a statement regarding potential church planter’s ministry focus group if needed.

Step 2: Generation of Assessment Report

Each assessment team member generates a report for the qualities they were assigned by the lead assessor, using the template provided on the cd and on pages of this workbook.

- Using the template provided following the rating norms, make descriptive comments in sentence form capture the essence of the data gathered and back up all descriptive phrases with relevant data (i.e. examples!). You may use paragraph form or statements followed by bulleted examples of behavior that supports the statements.
- Grade Assessment Questionnaire using Rating Norms. Each team member should do this comparing its interview notes as well as reviewing the pre-assessment profile. The rating norms and how to use them are provided for you on the following pages under this section.

Training Exercise: Let's Practice!

Using the information you gathered in the real assessment you did earlier today, write up a report on one of the qualities you were assigned but do not score the prospective planter for that behavior yet. When you are finished, each of you share your report with your trainer and receive feedback. Make any necessary adjustments to your report.

Using The Rating Norms

Step 1: Read through the rating norms for each attribute and compare them with your written observations of the behaviors demonstrated by the prospective planter as collected in the interview and pre-assessment material. Check the boxes in the rating norms that reflect your planter's behaviors.

Step 2: Assign the appropriate rating score based on the information you collected in regards to that attribute. Use only half number increments, 1; 1.5; 2; 2.5; 3; 3.5 and so on to distinguish their behavior more accurately.

Giving a Mixed Rating: A mixed rating (two scores representing the same quality as both high and low in a leaders life) should be assigned when either of the following situations exist:

- A. Scope of Experience: The potential planter has several behavioral examples but they are limited to a brief time period or a single ministry or work context.
- B. Conflicting Behaviors: The potential planter has lots of examples in one competency but at the expense of another.

Trainer Exercise:

Trainer will lead you in a demonstration using the two steps listed above.

CAUTIONARYNOTE: While the system of rating norms presented here has been carefully forged out of significant effort and experience, it is not just a numbers game. People are far more complex than rating norms can effectively reflect. Care must be taken in the use of such a system of assigning numbers to people's characteristics so that potential abuses do not occur.

BEHAVIORS, BEHAVIORS, BEHAVIORS! We are looking at what a potential planter has done, not "could have, should have or would have," and not future tense.

Step 2: Generation of Assessment Report (continued)

Training Exercise: Practice applying the rating norms:

Part 1: Using the rating norms score the assessment report provided for you at your table. When finished, your trainer will ask each of you to share some of your scores and explain why you selected those scores. Be prepared to receive feedback from your trainer.

Part 2: Now score the quality you have written a report on from the real assessment you participated in this morning. Remember to use the rating norms for that quality

Each assessor writes a report covering the competencies assigned to them using the template provided. They also include assets, liabilities and concluding remarks. This report is sent to the lead assessor who merges the report of the team members into one. Each assessor scores the qualities they were assigned using the rating norms. The Lead Assessor collects the reports of the other team members then compiles the overall report and sends it back to the Assessment team for one final review prior to sending it to the District Supervisor and other designated personnel. The Supervisor is responsible to send the report to the prospective planter prior to the debrief interview.

- Compile the report using the template as a guide provided on the following pages. Refer to any pre-assessment information gathered earlier that is pertinent to the report and include it in your final written account.
- Be sure to do a spelling and grammar check before you send the report to the appropriate leaders.
- Send the completed report to the District Supervisor, the Parent Church Pastor/Sponsoring Pastor (when applicable) and the Planting Couple or Individual.

EVALUATION GUIDE AND RATING NORMS

1. Visionizing Capacity

Generates vision, initiates plans and builds significant projects from the ground floor up

Qualities:

1. The ability to see a preferred future beyond the present
2. Develops a theme which highlights the vision and philosophy of ministry
3. Persuasively sells the vision to people
4. Approaches challenges as opportunities instead of obstacles
5. Copes effectively with non-visionizing people
6. Does not erect artificial walls to limit the capacities of God, self or others
7. Believes in God's capacity to accomplish great things

Rating Norms:

High (4-5)

- 1. Has an extensive history of starting projects, organizations or businesses from "scratch" that continue to be successful after candidate leaves.
- 2. Demonstrates a go for it attitude and is a catalyst who initiates in most areas of life.
- 3. Consistently keeps the vision at the forefront in innovative and memorable ways, which engender participation from others.
- 4. Has consistently envisioned medium to long-range projects that successfully met or exceeded initial goals.
- 5. Has a track record of securing significant funds, manpower and other donated resources to accomplish major undertakings.
- 6. In the past, his/her vision has proven so powerful that obstacles were swept aside. He/she overcame obstacles by reiterating the vision and rallying deeper commitment.

Medium (2.5-3.5)

- 1. Has started and built at least one project, organization or business which has seen moderate success.
- 2. Initiates when particularly competent in an area, but many times follows the plans of others rather than leading out with his/her own.
- 3. Communicates vision through normal means with little innovation or in an inconsistent manner. Some followers can remember the vision if prompted.
- 4. Primarily sets and meets short to mid term goals, but can project farther into the future at times.
- 5. Has been able to raise funds and recruit help on a small or narrow basis.
- 6. Has demonstrated a firm grasp of his vision, but when challenged by an obstacle, pursuit of the vision may have slowed down while those obstacles were dealt with.

Low (1-2)

- 1. Has little or no history of starting projects, organizations or businesses from "scratch" and/or builds very small or very narrow.
- 2. Has initiated when necessary or when told to do so, but prefers to respond to situations, or to others. He/she does not normally take a bold and active lead.
- 3. Has little or no ability to think out of the box and design new strategies for communicating vision; can only adapt.
- 4. Gets absorbed by current duties and has difficulty seeing what needs to be done even three months ahead for most projects.
- 5. Is knowingly or unknowingly resistant to asking for financial help or recruiting volunteers.
- 6. Has had ideas blocked and has limited experience in overcoming obstacles.

3. Creating Ownership of Ministry

Passes on the baton of ministry so that others continue the race

Qualities:

1. Trains leaders to reproduce leaders
2. Instills in the people a sense of personal responsibility for the growth and success of ministry
3. Helps people to “buy in” and feel personally responsible for the growth and success of the church
4. Establishes a congregational identity, unity and commitment to the vision
5. Avoids imposing unrealistic goals on people for which they cannot claim ownership

Rating Norms:

High (4-5)

- 1. Has an extensive track record of inspiring others to commitment and mobilizing them to fill ministry positions.
- 2. Actively pursues others who can handle tasks and generously gives away responsibility.
- 3. Has a track record of constantly developing others to their potential. Have many examples of launching people into higher levels of responsibility and ministry.
- 4. Have multiple examples of individuals he/she has discipled and mentored who have gone on to reproduce themselves.
- 5. Is extremely effective at influencing others to take on leadership roles, make significant commitments and sacrifices in bringing candidate’s vision to reality.

Medium (2.5-3.5)

- 1. Recruits people for tasks, but has some record of doing so in a narrow or limited manner.
- 2. Delegates when overwhelmed, when obvious needs present themselves or on an inconsistent basis.
- 3. Has a generally good track record of developing others for tasks, but has neglected coaching many of them to deeper levels of identity and responsibility.
- 4. Has attempted to disciple others but has only some success with those, whom he has discipled, reproducing themselves.
- 5. Gets others excited about ministry and rallies the troops to accomplish vision, but may do so without releasing significant leadership of the ministry to others.

Low (1-2)

- 1. Has a difficult time asking for commitment from others or manipulates others to take on responsibilities.
- 2. The candidate controls ministry, he/she only releases tasks that he/she is not gifted for.
- 3. Is generally blind to the areas that need development and coaching in others.
- 4. Does not possess a multiplication mindset, but an addition mindset.
- 5. Complains that his/her followers lack vision and commitment or are apathetic.

EVALUATION GUIDE AND RATING NORMS (CONT)*4. Reaching the Unchurched

Consistently reaches out to the unchurched and influences them towards relationship with Christ and the church and has a practiced value for evangelism

Qualities:

1. Communicates in a style that is understood by the unchurched
2. Develops rapport, breaks through barriers and encourages unchurched people to examine themselves and commit to a walk with God
3. Understands the “psychology” or mentality of the unchurched
4. Moves and functions in the “personal space” of the unchurched without fear
5. Quickly makes friends with the unchurched people, getting to know them on a personal level
6. Intentionally breaks through the barriers erected by the unchurched
7. Sees crises faced by the unchurched as opportunities to serve

Rating Norms:High (4-5)*

- 1. Enjoys building relationships with the unchurched in order to bring them to Christ and currently have numerous relationships, which are at various commitment levels.
- 2. Has multiple examples of bringing the unchurched to decision for Christ and evidences a knack for knowing when to introduce spiritual topics.
- 3. Has followed through on those he has personally led to Christ in order to ensure that they get assimilated into a local church.
- 4. Comfortably interacts with non-Christians and can often be found on their turf.

Medium (2.5-3.5)

- 1. Has effectively developed relationships with the unchurched, but has not yet made enough intentional effort to get onto the unchurched “turf” for more exposure and interaction.
- 2. Has built a relationship with and personally led at least one unchurched person to Christ.
- 3. Has a hit and miss record of assimilating new believers into the local church.
- 4. Understands non-Christians, but as a general rule does not hang out with them enough or evidences some limited redemptive influence because of compromise.

Low (1-2)

- 1. Has little experience building relationships with the unchurched and is uncomfortable doing so.
- 2. Has not personally led any unchurched people to make a decision for Christ.
- 3. Is careless about following up on new Christians and makes few efforts to bring them into the local church body.
- 4. Has a history of building relationships only with those who are already Christians.

6. Has a strategy for dealing with strangers
7. Models wholesome family life before church and community
8. Agrees upon and shares the ministry vision
9. Deliberately plans and protects private family life.

Rating Norms:

High (4-5)

- 1. The couple has a clear understanding of, and commitment to, their roles in ministry and what they expect from each other.
- 2. Have established firm boundaries regarding all aspects of church and family life.
- 3. This couple evidences a solid, Godly, bombproof marriage. Their love and commitment to one another shines through clearly.
- 4. Their communication is open, honest and timely. They listen well to one another and actively put the other's needs before their own.
- 5. Both husband and wife are united in their desire for church planting. They are actively supporting one another in preparing for the possibility of church planting.

Medium (2.5-3.5)

- 1. The couple has a good idea of what ministry/roles each one is suited for, but so far they are not totally explicit. They also may have little track record of being tested in pressure ministry situations
- 2. Have some boundaries in place but enforcement of those boundaries may be sporadic.
- 3. This couple has gone through rocky times in their relationship with each other and they are not yet completely out of the woods. Things are currently going well.
- 4. They communicate, but not always in a healthy manner. They may need to improve in their communication skills in order to improve their marriage.
- 5. One of the partners has some reservations about church planting which are not yet totally resolved but is working towards clarity and resolution.

Low (1-2)

- 1. The couple is unsure of what roles best suit them. They have unclear expectations for what will be required of them.
- 2. They have little to no boundaries in place for handling the demands that ministry/work place on their family life.
- 3. This couple is in need of marriage counseling.
- 4. They have negative patterns of communication entrenched in their marriage and have conflicts which are marginally or totally unresolved.
- 5. One spouse is resistant to the idea and desires some kind of guarantees in order to feel comfortable moving forward.

Training Exercise

Let's evaluate some real assessment reports and see what we can learn!

Read the assessment report provided for you at your table as though you were a Supervisor who had never met this prospective planter and had just sat down and picked up the report to read it. As a team evaluate it using the following criteria:

What's right?

What's wrong?

What's missing?

What's confused?

Question & Answer Time

PHASE 4

DEBRIEF INTERVIEW WITH THE POTENTIAL PLANTER(S)

PHASE FOUR: DEBRIEF INTERVIEW

Purpose of the Debrief Interview:

The purpose of meeting with the planter and their spouse is to affirm their strengths, share the Supervisors recommendations for them and discuss the next steps they should take to prepare for ministry as a church planter or redirect them toward another area of ministry where they can contribute out of their gifts and strengths.

What should be done to prepare for the interview?

- Give the prospective planting couple or individual a copy of the assessment report at least three days prior to the actual debrief interview.
- Pray for the couple prior to the interview time and spend time listening to God for His wisdom for the time.
- Prepare any materials or information you want to offer the prospective planter as part of his/her next steps.
- Create a warm, relational environment for the interview.

When should the interview be done:

The interview should be scheduled within three weeks of the actual assessment or at the next earliest time available to the prospective planter.

Who should do the interview:

Debrief interview should be conducted by a District Supervisor, Parent Church Pastor, District Church Multiplication leader, or Divisional Superintendent or other person designated by the District Supervisor.

The elements of an effective debrief interview:

- Adequate preparation (as described above)
- Relational connection established with the person conducting the interview and the prospective planting couple or individual.
- Affirm their strengths.
- Discuss their weaknesses.
- Share the Supervisors recommendations for them.
- Discuss any redirection.
- Decide on their next steps to prepare for their call or any new direction that arises.
- Pray together

Training Exercise

Evaluation of the training: Evaluation form provided by the trainer.

Steps in Establishing a Regional Assessment Process

FIRST STEPS

- 1. Person (or persons) to champion assessment in our district have been identified and recruited.
- 2. Blessing of, and authority from, necessary denominational representatives has been secured.
- 3. Need for assessors for next 3 to 5 years has been projected.
- 4. Cities in our region that need assessors or assessment centers have been identified.
- 5. Type of assessor training and how it will be accomplished has been determined.
- 6. A coordinator has been appointed who will administrate appointments and ensure that assessment reports are submitted on time and in a good format.

NEXT STEPS

- 1. First assessors have been trained, and practice sessions have been completed.
- 2. First formal assessments have been carried out.
- 3. Written reports have been completed for each within a two-week period and have been sent to coach/district leader.
- 4. Coach/district leader has shared the results with the candidates in a face-to-face meeting.
- 5. Quality control is in place for assessing the assessors by reviewing their reports.

CONTINUING STEPS

- 1. The process of follow-up and Evaluation for Assessment Review has been determined.
- 2. The value of ongoing training is embraced and carried out.

Individual Assessment Evaluation

A Tool For Evaluation, Communication and Dialog. Excellence Is Our Goal!

For the area indicated, please answer 1 basic question:

For each area, what can we do to improve our Church Planter Assessments?

Assessment Team Review & Evaluation

Preparedness - Were you adequately prepared? What could we have done better?

Training - Did the training you receive prepare you to do a good job?

Setting - What can we do to better host in the next assessment?

Reporting - What challenges did you face during the reporting process?

The Last 5%

Checklist: Evaluating Assessment System Health

WE HAVE A SYSTEM ESTABLISHED FOR ASSESSING CHURCH PLANTERS THAT OBJECTIVELY ASSESSES:

- Necessary skills and competencies
- Christian character
- Emotional and marital stability
- Theological understanding and skill
- Philosophy of ministry
- Compelling sense of calling by God
- Contextual issues of culture, age, values and experience

OUR ASSESSMENT SYSTEM HAS:

- Effective procedures for recruiting assessors.
- Effective procedures for training assessors (initially and continually).
- Effective procedures for supervising assessors so that quality control is happening.
- Effective process that incorporates ongoing change in our Assessment approach and materials
- Functioning procedures for setting and tracking assessment appointments.
- Functioning procedures for ensuring the timely submission of reports to the proper individuals.
- Functioning procedure for timely review of the assessment(s) and a timely response to the candidate.
- Functioning procedures for one-on-one reporting to the candidate of the results of the assessment(s) and any decision related to their candidacy.

THE ULTIMATE MEASURE OF AN EFFECTIVE ASSESSMENT PROCESS IS HEALTHY, ENDURING PLANTS. WE HAVE:

- Implemented a feedback process for measuring the success of our plants.
- Identified goal for success expressed in percent of plants that survive beyond five years with continued conversion growth.

Note: If after taking this self-assessment, you were able to answer with either a or b on #21, then you very possibly could be Foursquare's next church planter! We recommend that you make an appointment with your Senior pastor and discover what next steps you should take.

To score your quiz give yourself:

- 4 points for every a. answer
- 3 points for every b answer
- 2 points for every c answer
- 1 point for every d answer

Add up your total score and see how your gifts and qualities match up with the qualities of effective church planters:

If you scored:

60-84: Green Thumb: Run, don't walk—to talk to your Senior Pastor about church planting!

45-59: Explorer—You should definitely explore church planting further. You could be an excellent team member for a planting team.

30-44: Special Agent—You may be gifted to take a specific assignment in a church plant as a help to the leadership team. Talk to a leader in your life and check out the needs of church planters near you.

20-29: Investigator—Your gifts will thrive in other areas of ministry. You should continue to investigate the options with the leaders in your life.
